The 1859 edition has remained in print until the present, an indication of the work's continuing importance.

Book: The Catholic Understanding of the Bible

Not to speak of the Catholic understanding of the Bible would be confusing, to say the least, and even misleading. The Bible is not just the Bible. It is the foundation for Christianity. Everything depends on three things: what books form the contents of the Bible, how the Bible is translated, and most importantly, how the Bible is interpreted. All the religions have their own scriptures. The Genesis 5 Commentary - Gary H. Everett's Study Notes on ...
